

Partners in the ScienceCenter-Network

Since its founding in 2006 the ScienceCenter-Network dedicated itself to interactive science education. The network is a loose association of various partners from all over Austria, who pursue common goals: to make science directly accessible and easy to comprehend and experience. By now our network comprises more than 170 committed partners from the fields of museums, scientific research, economy, education, design, art and media.

List of all the network partners>>